

18 TO 23 MAY, 2026 AT KYAMBOGO COLLEGE SCHOOL

Theme: Patriotism with Pan Africanism; for Social Justice, Quality Education and Culture; for Actual Nation Building and Sustainable Development

The Mock Debate Code (MDC), by Thenuel Debate and Literary Fronesis, challenges debaters to approach motions with intellectual rigor and strategic finesse, embodying the roles of dignitaries in high-stakes summits. Among other several important aspects, one of the key aspects to consider is, "Pressing to the Acme," which urges debaters to maximize disagreement, taking extreme stances to eliminate grey areas and create sharp contrasts. This approach demands debaters to fully commit to their side—proposer or opposer—by presenting arguments that leave no room for compromise, ensuring a robust clash. For instance, when debating a motion like "Africa should eradicate child labour," rather than conceding partial impacts, debaters should assert absolute positions, backed by vivid evidence and logical coherence, to dismantle opposing arguments comprehensively. Preparation is critical, requiring thorough research and rehearsal to deliver arguments with authority and clarity. Debaters must align their rhetoric with the dignitary's perspective, maintaining formal protocol and gender consonance, while crafting unique proposals that address the motion's core issues. By pressing to the acme, debaters not only showcase intellectual maturity but also captivate judges and audiences, leaving a lasting impression of eloquence and conviction in the Mock Debate arena.

The first three debate motions, for the first three debate rounds are written in blue;

- 1. Africa should eradicate child labour
- 2. African nations should make military training mandatory as one of the core qualifiers to be employed in public service.
- 3. Africa should reinforce and promote its cultures and traditions as a foundation for sustainable development.
4. Africa should mandate comprehensive sexual education in school curricula to combat the rising cases of teenage pregnancy
5. Africa should strengthen Cultural and Religious Institutions to curb down Domestic Violence
6. African nations should prohibit the possession and ownership of firearms by civilians
7. Africa should abolish bride price
8. African nations should stop intervening in foreign wars
9. Africa should eliminate all forms of corporal punishment
